

Strong Vaccination Policies Protect Patients & Public Health

States strengthen vaccination policies for schoolchildren by:

-  Repealing personal belief exemptions
-  Tightening exemption processes & requirements
-  Making school immunization rates publicly available

